

TORY IMMIGRATION BETRAYAL

Remember the Tory election pledge in 2010 and again in 2015 to reduce net immigration to "tens of thousands? Well the latest figures (August 27th 2015) show that net immigration has leapt by 94,000 to 330,000 the highest figure on record. That figure does not, of course, include the thousands of illegal immigrants many of them being smuggled in from Calais. Cameron has promised to bring in a further 20,000 Syrians. These Syrians are not in imminent danger and are currently accommodated near to Syria's border. They are Muslim and should be housed in another Muslim country.

They are not people who have been singled out for ill-treatment. They simply come from a country that is dangerous because of a civil war encouraged by interfering Western governments. The UK and the rest of Europe cannot move the entire populations of dangerous countries to live in our overcrowded homelands.

The Government knows no shame in its relentless campaign to reduce our indigenous population to a minority in its own country. The people who will pay will be the homeless and rough sleepers.

Every home given to an immigrant or (alleged) asylum seeker is a home denied to a British family

The advocates of immigration and the granting of asylum to all and sundry probably think of themselves as 'generous'. They include Labour/Tory/Lib Dem/Green/UKIP advocates of mass immigration. Farage was the first politician to demand we take Syrian migrants. However, they are not offering their own money to provide immigrants with accommodation. They are not offering them a bed in their spare rooms.

LABOUR WANT TENS OF THOUSANDS MORE

Distinctive peoples are not simply the product of distinctive cultures. When Third World immigrants arrive in the UK they do not absorb the culture in which they are immersed and become 'British', they retain their culture because it is part of their nature. They turn more and more parts of the UK into the Third World!

Dear ethnic minority resident,

When you or your ancestors arrived in Britain and were welcomed by the Government as 'British', you were not being shown respect; you were being treated with contempt. Your true identity was being treated as though it were so superficial that it could be erased in a trice and the 'superior' word 'British' superimposed in its place.

Your ancestral identity, centuries held religious beliefs and innate cultural nature are a part of you. You have every right - even a duty - to be proud of your identity. You need to re-claim your traditional and ancestral identities; you have every right to be proud of them.

We all need to invest ourselves in our peoples and countries of origin.

Opposition only from EU countries

Stop open door
EU immigration
Enough's enough.

"We WANT immigration; We WELCOME immigration. UKIP is NOT an anti-immigration party"

Won't voting for UKIP help to stop immigration? No it won't!

Nigel Farage has said that 250,000 work permits should be issued each year (4th May 2010). He told the European Parliament, "UKIP is not an anti-immigration party. We want immigration; we welcome immigration". (11th December 2013). In the 2014 European Election campaign, he complained that Britain was discriminating against Afro-Asian immigrants.
